contrary, the welcome—if such we may call it—extended to the British Sovereign by a Press of which the representatives were hospitably, and even enthusiastically, entertained at Windsor a few weeks ago, comes as near to positive rudeness as the circumstances permit. Of that, however, we do not complain in the least: contrariwise, we prefer it, not only because it may possibly have some effect in diminishing the volume of the cataract of soapy sentimentality which will probably overflow a certain portion of our own Press during the next few days, but also because sincerity is preferable to insincerity, and, in the present instance, may tend to awaken a good many people (who badly want awakening) to the truth about the relations, present and future, between England and Germany. What, then, is it that the German Government is looking for from this meeting of the monarchs? If we may believe the "National Zeitung," which is hardly likely to speak without knowledge on such an occasion, while the Russian situation supplies the chief reason for the meeting, there is another. England, we are told, desires to regulate the affairs of Egypt as soon as possible, and to make the proposed settlement seem plausible in the eyes of Germany. Again, as we learn from the Berlin correspondent of the "Times," the "Deutsche Revue" discusses the Egyptian "question" from the German standpoint, and proposes that Egypt should be treated "as an object of common interest to England and Germany, and that its future should be decided between the two Powers on the basis of compensating values." In short, in this and in other matters the two nations must effect settlements "upon a footing of confiding reciprocity."

HANDS OFF EGYPT!

To-morrow (says the "Pall Mall Gazette" of Tuesday last) his Majesty the King is to meet the German Emperor, and it is no secret that important affairs of State will occupy the attention of the two Sovereigns. First and foremost, as we must suppose, there will be the consideration of what steps it may be possible to take to assist the Tsar and the Russian Imperial family in the event of contingencies which are, at least, within the bounds of possibility. Then, presumably, they will exchange views upon the whole situation in Russia; and, lastly, upon the somewhat delicate subject of the relations between their own respective countries. In that last connection it is instructive to note that the German Press has made, as yet, absolutely no response whatever to those overtures of friendship which have been so lavishly poured out in England during the past few months. LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Franco-Egyptian Convention. The decree ratifying the Commercial Convention between France and Egypt is published in the French "Official Journal."

A Brute in Human Shape. Advice from Maghaga report the arrest of a certain Mohamed Abou Zeid, who was interrupted in the act of burning the body of his wife, whom he had strangled.

Beirut Family of Nine Drowned. Among the survivors of the Sirio disaster was M. Faltat-Horat, of Beirut, who was making the voyage with his family, consisting of ten persons, of whom he is the sole survivor.

New Quay Estate. The next sale of the Municipal estate on the new quay will take place in October. After that date there will be auctions of this land at regular intervals until the total amount of the land fixed by the Commission for sale has been disposed of.

A Forger. Mahmoud Hamdi el-Mutargim, who recently managed to escape from custody on the charge of forging telegraphic money orders, has been apprehended by the Cairo police. The official enquiry showed that Mahmoud Hamdi had committed forgeries to the extent of L.E. 400 during the last three months.

San Stefano Casino. The fête de nuit at San Stefano on Saturday fully realized the expectations of the large throng who filled the grounds of this popular Casino. The Bracone orchestra and the Philharmonic Band vied with each other in their musical efforts, and the evening wound up with a magnificent firework display.

A Local Composer. Among the items of music to be played by the band of the 2nd Batt. Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers in the Esbekieh Gardens to-morrow evening, appears a march, "The Rising Nile," composed by Lieut.-Colonel J. Donegan, R.A.M.C., who is at present in medical charge of the troops at Kasr el-Nil. The arrangement for military band has been made by Bimbashi Franklin, Musical Director, Egyptian Army.

Cairo Motor Accident. The enquiry into the motor car accident which resulted in the death of a lady and injuries to Yessin Bey Mustapha, has shown that the motor car was being driven at too high a speed, and that the cart with which it collided carried no light. Such, at least, was the evidence elicited from Gamila Saïda, a woman servant who was accompanying them.

Armenian Lawlessness. There was an echo of the racial feuds in the Ottoman Empire in Alexandria yesterday afternoon, when four Armenians attacked a Greek in Mohamed-Aly square because he was selling the Alexandria Greek newspaper, "Byzantium." Our contemporary has offended Armenian susceptibilities by venturing to publish a portrait of the Orthodox Bishop of Anchialos in Eastern Roumelia. This prelate is disliked by the Armenians and so these men thrashed the Greek newspaper and tore his papers to tatters. They were arrested and released on bail.

Taximeters for Alexandria. A local newspaper stated that it had been decided to fit up the Alexandria cabs with taximeters. This statement is not correct, and was evidently based on the fact that a representative of a French firm of manufacturers of taximeters had submitted a proposal to the Municipality. As we understand that each taximeter costs about frs. 200, it is not likely that the proprietors of cabs will see their way to adopt it, especially as they are very pleased with the present cab tariff, which is considered most equitable for all the parties concerned.

NEW ABBAS THEATRE.

SIGNORINA LEONI'S BENEFIT.

The final performance of The Gelsa at the New Abbas Theatre on Friday night was very properly devoted to the benefit of Signa. Baldi, who, invariably welcome to Cairo audiences, has so largely contributed to the success of that piece, which has been the best received of all the company's wide repertoire. Large as the theatre is, it was almost full, and great was the applause accorded to the much-lamented Mimosa San when she appeared on the stage.

The Italian translation is rather a grotesque parody of the popular English play, and though the staging was certainly excellent, many of the costumes were quite incomprehensible. To see the naval officers appear in military uniform made one smile, but even greater merriment was provoked by the sight of a sailor in kilts! As regards the musical representation of the piece, there was not much fault to be found, but Mimosa San treated that pretty "Goldfish" song with great crudely by singing it in such painfully slow time, and we cannot understand why the finest of all the songs, "Star of my Soul," should have been omitted. Despite these faults, however, the play went with an excellent swing, and Signorina Baldi and Leoni, and Signori Urbano and Pirracini especially distinguished themselves in the principal characters of Mimosa San, Molly Seamore, Wun-Hi, and Marquis Imaro, respectively.

DEATH OF PRINCE MOHAMED IBRAHIM.

TERRIBLE FATALITY.

PRINCE'S AUTOMOBILE COLLIDES WITH TRAIN.

(Gazette's Special Service.)

LONDON, August 20. Prince Mohamed Ibrahim, whilst motoring between Bernay and Corneilles, smashed violently into a train at the level crossing between Paris and Cherbourg at 7.30 o'clock on Saturday night. Both the Prince and his chauffeur are dead. According to the evidence taken, the Prince's automobile was travelling at an excessive rate of speed.

PARIS, August 18. An automobile conveying the Egyptian Prince Ibrahim Mohamed collided with a train near Bernay. The Prince has been seriously injured.

The automobile of Prince Mohamed Ibrahim (aged 38), cousin of H.H. the Khedive, ran into the engine of a train while crossing the Cherbourg road. It was entirely destroyed. The Prince's condition is desperate. The chauffeur has already succumbed.

The newspapers state that Prince Mohamed Ibrahim died in the evening.

BERNAY, August 19. Prince Mohamed Ibrahim succumbed after having undergone a trepanning operation. [Bernay, where the catastrophe occurred, is on the main line to Cherbourg, between Evreux and Lisieux. It is a town of 7,966 inhabitants, and is the capital of the arrondissement of the Eure. The Chemin de Fer de l'Ouest passes through the town, and while crossing this railway line the Prince met with the accident.]

A private telegram from Cherbourg to the Daira received as we go to Press states that the Prince breathed his last at 9.30 o'clock yesterday evening. He was alone in his automobile with his chauffeur. The Mayor of Cherbourg sent a telegram dated 4 p.m. yesterday to the Prince's Daira at Alexandria to the effect that his Highness's condition was "très grave."

Prince Mohamed Bey Ibrahim was the son of Khedive Ibrahim Ahmed, the cousin of the Khedive, and brother to H.H. Prince Seïf el Din, who is living in England. He was only 28 years of age, not 38, as stated in the Havas telegram. The Prince was married twice. Seven years ago he married Princess Fazilah, the daughter of Prince Osman Fazil. He had a son by the first wife who is now six years of age. After the death of Princess Fazilah, five years ago, his Highness married Princess Solihah, daughter of Prince Ibrahim Hilmy, uncle of the Khedive, by whom he had two children, one a daughter who is now four years old, and the other a son, now two and a-half years of age.

The Prince was the biggest landlord in the neighbourhood of Alexandria. The Alexandria Sporting Club's grounds is on his property, and he possessed a great deal of land in the city, including the large buildings in Mohamed Aly square where the offices of the Banco di Roma are situated. It is stated that the Prince was offered lately L.E. 2,200,000 for his estates in Alexandria and Cairo, but refused, as he wanted £3,000,000. Prince Mohamed and his wife and children left Alexandria last month for France and took up their residence in the Prince's Parisian mansion in rue Callipert. His Highness was an ardent motorist and had already met with a terrible accident in Cairo the season before last, on the Pyramids road, when two European ladies who were with him, Mrs. Schragar and Mrs. Voronoff, were also seriously injured.

THE KHEDIVÉ.

The "Standard" of the 14th inst. contains the following announcement: "The Khedive of Egypt, who left Cowes for Ostend, is now at Spa." No other paper states that the Khedive has visited England, so either the news is erroneous or the strictest incognito was preserved.

UNREST IN THE SUDAN.

THE EXISTENCE OF FANATICISM.

In a letter which we have received from a correspondent at Port Sudan we are informed that ever since the commencement of the Akaba affair considerable unrest has been evident among the Sudanese of that district, and, our correspondent remarks, "the existence of fanaticism therabouts cannot be denied."

No uneasiness is said to exist among the English inhabitants, who realise that any trouble which might be brewing would very soon be discovered and that immediate steps would be taken to convince the natives of the futility of any outbreak. The couple of hundred or so Greeks in Port Sudan show, however, a most unreasonable fear of an outbreak, and scores among them are frequent.

On our part, we are convinced that Colonel Drury, Governor of that province, will be able to maintain perfect order, and we would advise our Greek friends of Port Sudan to reassure themselves.

ENGLISHMAN'S GRAVE DESECRATED.

SEARCH FOR BOOTY.

We learn from Port Sudan that Mr. Cross, an ex-soldier and foreman of works at Port Sudan, died the week before last from heat apoplexy. On the day following the burial it was found that the railings round the unfortunate man's grave had been pulled down and that the grave had been re-opened. The body was found in the grave, apparently undisturbed, and it is thought that some of the Sudanese from the adjacent village had opened the grave in the hopes of finding booty.

In spite of most searching inquiries no evidence has been found to convict any of the villagers of this horrible act of desecration.

AN AWKWARD DILEMMA.

RESULT OF WASH-OUTS IN SUDAN.

Considerable inconvenience has been caused by the recent wash-outs which have been experienced on the Port Sudan railway. Parts of the line have been broken up and the telegraphic communication has suffered greatly.

At the time of the first of these wash-outs, which we reported a short while ago, Bimbashi Lord was up in the hills some eighty miles from Port Sudan and suddenly found himself altogether cut off from the nearest villages and without provisions. The telegraph line to Port Sudan being broken, the only means by which Bimbashi Lord could obtain assistance was by telegraphing to Atbara, which he did by "tapping" a wire, and from there the message was transmitted to Cairo. From Cairo the officer's urgent summons was telegraphed to Suez, and thence to Port Sudan. In this round-about way the unfortunate position of Bimbashi Lord was made known to his fellow-officers at Port Sudan, from where provisions and help were sent with the utmost rapidity.

TURKISH TRANSPORT'S DISTRESS.

RESCUED BY B. I. STEAMER.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Suez, Sunday. The British India steamer Warora (Capt. A. E. Stebbing) arrived at Suez this morning from Bombay, having in tow the Turkish troopship Bars, which has on board 302 troops and 45 of a crew, from Hodeidah bound to Constantinople.

The Warora sighted the Bars 17 miles south of Ras Garib, in the Gulf of Suez, at 8.30 a.m. on the 18th inst. She was in distress, her engines being disabled, and she was drifting towards the shore; in about half an hour's time she would have been on the rocks and broken up.

The commander and troops of the Turkish transport were in terrible straits, and as they possessed no flags to signal with they were seen desperately waving and crying out for assistance, their only distress signal being the ship's ensign half-masted. The Warora, at great risk, owing to the heavy sea and strong wind, and also her close proximity to the land, approached the Bars and by means of rockets threw lines to her. Finally she managed to get hold of the transport and tow her to Suez safely, after first getting the tow hawser parted, and the manoeuvres had to be repeated with greater risk owing to the ship drifting rapidly closer and closer to the shore.

The plan of passing ropes from one vessel to another in a heavy sea, where there is great danger attending the lowering of boats, has apparently never been attempted before, and is entirely an idea of Captain Stebbing, to whom, as well as to the officers, great credit must be given for saving the lives of so many people, who would have very likely perished were it not for the prompt assistance rendered.

GAMBLING AT SAN STEFANO.

VILLA MARGHERITA RAIDED.

Barly yesterday morning the Alexandria City Police, including Hacheen Bey and two detectives, made a raid on the Villa Margherita, an hotel at San Stefano, while gambling was proceeding.

On the arrival of the police a scene of great excitement ensued, but no arrests were made. £30 and the gambling material were confiscated by the police.

THE CAPITULATIONS.

THEIR ORIGIN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "EGYPTIAN GAZETTE."

Sir,—A common error, shared largely by the European colonies in the Ottoman dominions, is that the Capitulations were granted only to subjects of foreign Powers. This is not so. Originally, the scope of the Capitulations comprised all non-Muslims, resident in Turkey. It was not until the latter part of the 15th century that the Capitulations were granted to the Turkish Colonies within their realm, such as the Genoese, the Pisans, and the Venetians. After the Fall of Constantinople, Mahomed II., desirous of reconciling the Greeks for the loss of their political liberties, by allowing them a certain measure of their previous communal privileges, ratified the Capitulations which the Greek Lords of Byzantium had conferred upon the Latin colonies, and by a wise and masterly stroke of policy, the effects of which have lasted to this day, extended a fair proportion of those benefits to his new non-Muslim subjects, chief amongst which of course at that time were the Orthodox Greeks; and these benefits were, inter alia, that they should be governed by their own municipal laws, have their own Patriarchal Court and Justinian Code, be free of military service—in fact enjoy just as much self-government as do the foreign Colonies now with the exception of those penal and civil matters which were ultra vires of the Patriarchal Court. Moreover, the groundwork of these original Byzantine Capitulations has served as the basis of all subsequent treaties between the Ottoman Porte and Christian Princes.

An interesting and conclusive relic of this state of things is the fact that the Consul of a European Power is even to-day described in official documents, such as the exequatur, as the "Baïla," a title borrowed from that which the head of the Genoese or Venetian colony held under the Lower Empire, and which he continued to hold under the Turks.

It was this "authority and immemorial prestige" to which I referred in my letter to you of August 4 as bound to suffer by the abolition of the Capitulations, not so much from juridical privilege as from political status, of which more anon.

Greek Orthodoxy, therefore, in common with the several other communities, Christian and Hebrew, subject to, and resident within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, have in greater or less degrees privileges just as valid as those of the colonies of foreign Powers. In the case of the Greek community these privileges are accentuated by the fact that the Orthodox Greek Church is the Christian State religion in Turkey. The Ecumenical Patriarch is officially just as much the head of the Greek nation as is the Sultan the Caliph of the Mohammedans, or the Pope Pontiff of the Holy Roman Empire. The Greek Church is styled the Great Church, and claims precedence in all State ceremonies, the Patriarch being alone permitted to represent the other religious communities, and as conclusive proof of his high rank, the Sultan rises upon the entry of his Ecumenical Holiness; a mark of respect which is not shown to the Grand Vizier. I might enumerate various other items of Patriarchal privileges, such as the military honours, but the fact of his spiritual equality with the Sultan will suffice.

I now come to the crux of the question. Strictly speaking, and according to precedents which are indisputable, the abolition of the Capitulations in the form proposed by Lord Cromer is impossible.

Firstly, because that measure applies to a vilayet of the Ottoman Porte, and not to the whole system of the Empire; secondly, because to become effective it must require a special Irâdê of the Sultan; thirdly, because to conform to the spirit of impartiality with which it has been conceived, it must apply to all the non-Muslim communities resident within this Ottoman vilayet.

The abolition of the Capitulations in the sense Lord Cromer has suggested by excluding the subject non-Muslim communities would render the status of those communities in Egypt null and void; it would subject to the local Egyptian authority, and not the Ottoman Porte, all those Christian and Jewish communities whose supreme authority is at Constantinople.

Thus, were the abolition realised, the Greek Patriarch of Alexandria would discover himself severed from the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople, and, to carry the point further, would require from the Khedive, and not the Sultan, that Irâdê for the journey which I mentioned in my letter.

To sum up, my contentions are that the status of these non-Muslim communities of Ottoman nationality in Egypt has been overlooked in Lord Cromer's scheme; that to be thorough, that abolition must include them as well; that the effect of that measure will make the status of the Patriarchate of Alexandria an anomaly, by rendering it independent of the Ecumenical Patriarchate without provision for a readjustment of its relations with the local Egyptian authority; that a special Irâdê is necessary from H.I.M. the Sultan for the abolition of the Capitulations, which would then, to be effective, have to apply to the Empire at large.

(Opposition to Lord Cromer, to which a correspondent objected, although it might exist, as I know it to do, could not very well be officially expressed by a subordinate of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople, who alone has the prerogative to voice the views of the Orthodox Greek Church and the Greek nation.)

The only solution to the difficulty would be a form of Protectorate exercised in Egypt by one or other of the Powers subject to the spiritual authority of the Orthodox Patriarch, such as Russia or Greece, and similar to that which France wields in the Levant over the Oriental Latin communities, subject to Turkey.—Yours, etc., XENOS.

Alexandria, 17th August 1906. [P.S.—I note the quibble re personal status; is this not also included in civil law? My lawyer says it is.]

ALEXANDRIA SPORTING CLUB.

AUGUST SKYE MEETING.

Saturday's Snye Meeting on the A. S. C. ground was uneventful and unexciting. There was a remarkably small attendance of the public, and few of the regular race-goers were to be seen in the enclosure, which bore a more or less deserted appearance. The racing did not present any features of interest, the only close finish being afforded by the Bulkeley Plate. The betting, too, was not very animated, and on the whole the meeting met with but mediocre success. The afternoon was warm, but a cool breeze came from the sea. The band of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers helped to while away the time by a choice selection of music. The following is a description of the various events:—

SAN STEFANO PLATE of P.T. 2,500, viz: P.T. 2000 to winner and P.T. 500 to 2nd horse. For Arab ponies that have never won a race of the net value of P.T. 2,000 or more. Weight for age and inches. Distance 6 furlongs. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's g.a.p. Kara Aslan, 10.3. Burnham. Khalil Pasha Khayat's g.a.h. Kawkab, 10.7. Thompson. Ishak Bey Hussein's g.a.p. Nadim, 10.7. Fenwick. Saleh Bey Yaghen's b.a.p. Bulkeley, 10.3. Claridge. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's c.a.p. Ghazi, 9.13. Pericles.

Prince Omar Pasha Toussoun's g.a.h. Mleyhan, 9.13. B. Parsons. Hassan Bey Kheir El Din's b.a.p. Gawaher, 10.3. Koukidis. Mr. A. J. Sursoc's b.b.r.a.h. Phintias (late Roi de l'Air II), 10.7. Challoner. Kara Aslan made all the running, and won by a couple of lengths from Kawkab, who, when reaching the polo house, made a desperate attempt to get on terms with the leader, but was too late to prove dangerous. 3 lengths divided 2nd and 3rd. Time 1.23.

Totalisator paid P.T. 35 on winner and P.T. 27, 30, and 59 for places. SCHUTZ PLATE of P.T. 1,250, viz: P.T. 1000 to winner and P.T. 250 to 2nd horse. For Arabs that have never won a race of the net value of P.T. 2,000 or more. Weight for age. Distance 1 mile. Mr. E. Karam's ch.a.h. Florist, 9.11. Hassan Soliman. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's b.a.h. Chendi, 10.7. Capt. Leigh. Mr. A. J. Sursoc's ch.a.h. Damon (late Korosko II), 10.7. Challoner. Hassan Bey Kheir el Din's b.a.h. Abou Gabel, 10.7. Koukidis. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's b.a.h. Merawi, 10.7. Burnham. Mr. B. A. P. Schreiber's b.a.h. Flying Fish, 10.7.

Chendi jumped off followed by Abou Gabel and soon got a long lead, which he maintained until reaching the 5-furlong post. Here Florist, who had been lying last, was sent to the front and came out of the outting some lengths ahead of Chendi, who could never make up lost ground and came in second to Florist by a length. Damon (late Korosko II.) was one length behind, third. Time: 1.53.

Totalisator paid P.T. 34 on winner and P.T. 19, 25, and 39 for places. GALLOWAY PLATE of P.T. 2,500, viz: P.T. 2,000 to winner and P.T. 500 to 2nd horse. For Arab Galloways that have never won a race of the net value of P.T. 2,000 or more. Weight for age and inches. Distance 1 mile. Ishak Bey Hussein's g.a.p. Fadghan, 9.1. Thompson. Saleh Bey Yaghen's g.a.p. India, 9.1. Abdallah. Mr. A. J. Sursoc's b.r.a.h. Nigri, 10.3. Challoner. Baron J. E. de Menasce's b.a.p. Viking, 9.9. Matthews. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's g.a.h. Kordofan, 9.7. Burnham. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's g.a.h. Korti, 10.7. Capt. Leigh. Mr. E. Karam's ch.a.h. Ladase, 10.3. Hassan Soliman. Hassan Bey Kheir el Din's g.a.h. Korashan (late Mastour), 10.1. Koukidis. Nigri and Viking were the first off to a good start, but as neither of them seemed to wish to make the pace it was taken up by Fadghan, who was closely followed by Kordofan. Fadghan, on entering the straight, had a lead of three lengths, and never once being challenged won comfortably by a couple of lengths from India, Nigri just losing second place by half a length. Time: 1.52.

Totalisator paid P.T. 37 on winner and P.T. 22, 29, and 44 for places. SELLING RACE of P.T. 2,000. For Arabs that have not won a selling race since 1st January 1905. Winner to be sold for P.T. 5,000. 7 lbs allowed for every P.T. 1,000 less than that price. Top weight 11.0. Distance 5 furlongs. Hussein Pasha Sionfi and Kamel Effendi Maher's b.a.p. Sweetie, 11.0. Kamel Effendi. Mr. E. Karam's g.a.h. Voltigeur, 10.7. Hassan Soliman. Mr. A. J. Sursoc's ch.a.p. Hotapur, 9.7. Challoner. Mr. A. J. Michaelides' b.r.a.p. El Mass, 10.0. Batty. Mr. B.A.P. Schreiber's g.a.h. Flying Fish, 11.0.

Ishak Bey Hussein's b.a.p. Kamboula, 9.7. Thompson. Sweetie made all the running and coming out of the outting had a clear lead of five lengths, which he maintained all the way home, winning as he liked by three lengths, a couple of lengths separating second and third. Time: 1.9. Totalisator paid P.T. 28 on winner, and P.T. 21, 26, and 41 for places.

BULKELEY PLATE of P.T. 1,250, viz: P.T. 1,000 to the winner and P.T. 250 to 2nd horse. For Arab ponies that have not won a race since 1st April 1906. Weight for age and inches with penalties. Distance round the course. Ishak Bey Hussein's g.a.p. Fadghan, 9.2. Fenwick. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's g.a.p. Kara Aslan, 9.3. Burnham. Saleh Bey Yaghen's g.a.p. India, 9.2. Abdallah. Mr. A. J. Sursoc's b.a.p. Sans Pareil, 9.7. Batty. Saleh Bey Yaghen's b.a.p. Bulkeley, 9.3. Claridge. Khalil Pasha Khayat's g.a.p. Sadik, 10.7. Thompson. Kara Aslan jumped off and made the running at a great pace until the mile post, followed by Bulkeley. On entering the cutting Kara Aslan gave place to Fadghan, but soon regained the lead, showing the way out to Fadghan and India. In the straight the race lay between Fadghan and Kara Aslan, but the latter could not maintain the pace and lost first place by a head. Three lengths divided second and third. Time: 2.30.

Totalisator paid P.T. 37 on winner and P.T. 23, and 30 for places. SIDI GABER PLATE of P.T. 1,250, viz: P.E. 1,000 to the winner and P.T. 250 to 2nd horse. For Arabs that have not won a race since the 1st April 1906. Weight for age with penalties. Distance round the course. Messrs. A. J. Sursoc's and A. J. Michaelides' g.a.h. Jupiter, 9.7. Challoner. Saleh Bey Yaghen's g.a.g. Mizzand, 9.4. Koukidis. Ishak Bey Hussein's b.a.h. Moofid, 9.7. Fenwick. Khalil Pasha Khayat's g.a.h. Sinouou, 10.0. Thompson. Mr. E. Karam's ch.a.h. Florist, 8.11. Hassan Soliman. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's b.a.h. Valentino, 10.3. Clements. Ibrahim Bey Cherif's b.a.h. Chendi, 9.7. Burnham. Sinouou was the first away from a bad start, but Chendi made the running from the mile post to the 5 furlongs, when Sinouou took it up and led into the outting with Florist. Coming out, Moofid was seen to be leading, with Mizzand and Jupiter at his heels. Jupiter came with a clatter in the straight and won by two lengths from Mizzand, Moofid being placed third, one length behind. Time: 2.34.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.

A GOOD WORD FOR THE SULTAN.

bers of the family passing through Constantinople.

MONEY AND SHARE MARKET.

The American market here. Nearly all along the line the shares have declined, Pennsylvanias being about the only exception.

Davies Bryan & Co. CONTINENTAL HOTEL BUILDINGS CAIRO. ST. DAVID'S BUILDINGS, ALEXANDRIA.

VALPARAISO EARTHQUAKE.

If our alliance with Japan (a non-Christian Power, let it be observed) has enabled us to dispense with a large portion of our naval force previously maintained in the Far East,

THE MONEY MARKET.

The money market continues to show ease, and the supply of gold is ample, notwithstanding the outflow for holiday purposes,

LADIES & GENTLEMEN'S COMPLETE OUTFITS. Speciality in Cairo. Dressmaking, Costumes, Blouses, Skirts, Dust cloaks, Veilings, Corsets &c.

ENORMOUS DAMAGE.

BY A MEMBER OF THE CORPS DIPLOMATIQUE.

The Turks unfortunately can point to many instances of the gross injustice with which they are treated. It was never intended by the authors of the Berlin Treaty that a Bulgaria should be created, to become a menace to the peace of Europe.

The Money Market.

The Egyptian market has been quite active during the past few days, and there is a good demand for the leading shares.

LADIES & GENTLEMEN'S COMPLETE OUTFITS.

WIDESPREAD FIRES.

To the watchful observer of affairs in the Near East it is not at all surprising to find that a certain amount of disturbance should have become manifest of late in the Islamic world.

The great activity of trade as shown in the large increase of both imports and exports is likely to keep the circulation active, but it can be safely said that never has booming trade demanded so little assistance from London banks or discount houses.

Speciality in Cairo. Dressmaking, Costumes, Blouses, Skirts, Dust cloaks, Veilings, Corsets &c.

HEAVY MORTALITY.

It should not be forgotten that we have more Mahomedan countries under our sway than any other Power, and therefore such trouble, if it arose, would be more likely to come our way than to move in the direction of other non-Mahomedan people.

The splendid trade returns issued this week have also given additional stimulus to investment business. They show that in July our exports to foreign countries exceeded all previous records, having increased by £5,621,000, while the imports are higher by £3,867,000.

TAILOR-MADE COSTUMES

The seriousness of the Valparaiso earthquake is apparent from the records of the seismographs in the Isles of Wight, Vancouver, and elsewhere, which showed prolonged shocks lasting for 5 hours.

Caliph and Defender of the Faith. The same want of observation has also existed in respect to the Sultan's position as "Caliph."

This week we have seen the interesting and somewhat unusual spectacle of a revival in the stock markets after a holiday which immediately precedes the conclusion of a nineteen-day account.

MEN'S TAILORING.

The telegrams received here represent the condition of Valparaiso as terrible. Earthquake shocks began at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening. Many houses collapsed and fires broke out.

Mr. Victor Marsden, who holds the place of honour in the "Fortnightly," points out the commercial benefits to ourselves which should follow a good understanding with Russia.

The fact that many members are away on holiday has, of course, restricted the amount of business transacted, added to which there appears to be little stock to be had in the markets.

Dress Suits, Lounge Suits, Breeches, &c.

Belated messages from Santiago (Chili) state that many houses have collapsed. The earthquake was the severest known.

"New Russia will be a land of increasing needs; capital will be more evenly distributed; the peasant will be relieved of the greater part of his present crushing burden of taxation; self-respect and ambition, education and freedom of movement, will teach him a thousand needs of which he is ignorant to-day.

The quieting-down of affairs in Russia, and the consequently steadier tone of the Paris and Berlin Bourses, has brought strength to Russian bonds, which during this week have daily advanced.

Spring and Summer Stocks now arriving, comprising: Tropical Tweeds, Flannels, Drills, Worsted, Fancy Vesting, &c.

The damage done by the earthquake at Santiago and Valparaiso is enormous.

No one who has been privileged to witness the weekly ceremony of the "Selamluk" during the period of the "Haj" or pilgrimage to Mecca, can have failed to note the variety of worshippers at the mosque attended by the Sultan.

The leading feature of the week has been the active demand for gilt-edged securities, and this has put up the price of Consols, which are particularly buoyant, at 84 for cash, a gain on the week of 9/16.

GENTS' OUTFITTING.

According to the news received from Santiago on 18th inst., the earthquake extended over a zone of two degrees. Many public and private buildings have been greatly damaged.

The workman of Russia has abandoned his national costume, and some of the dirty habits which accompanied it; he now dresses much the same as the self-respecting workman of Western lands; he is demanding sanitary dwellings, and leisure hours for self-improvement.

The Commercial and Financial Supplement of the "Egyptian Gazette" is published at midday every Saturday in time for the Austrian Lloyd's mail.

The latest shades in Ties. Newest designs in Oxford and Zephyr Shirts. Cellular Shirts and Pyjamas in great variety.

Firemen from Santiago have gone to Valparaiso to quell the widespread fires. The villages of Quillota, Melipilla, San Antonio, and Lillillai are in ruins.

As time moves onward, "Islam" as a religious force is bound to increase in strength. It is making vast strides in Africa, and in the opinion of those most competent to judge in the matter, will be the religion of that Continent.

The record Board of Trade returns, and the prospect of bumper holiday traffics have, however, dispelled the weakness of this section, which during the past two days has developed considerable strength, quite an active business having been done in nearly all the shares.

Underclothing, Panamas, Straw, Felt, Double Felt Hats, Cork and Pith Helmets, Caps, Tarboches.

The number of dead at Valparaiso in consequence of the earthquake is 5,000.

The Advance of Islam. The Empire it will be due to ourselves, to the ungenerous treatment the Sultan has received at our hands, and to the conviction being driven home to the mind of the Mahomedans that England is no longer their friend.

The Commercial and Financial Supplement of the "Egyptian Gazette" is published at midday every Saturday in time for the Austrian Lloyd's mail.
